Trumpeter Bob Barnard speaking at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music...

On August 19, 2011, the trumpeter Bob Barnard gave the Alfred J Hook Memorial Lecture at the Sydney Conservatorium of Music (SCM). It has been described as “A personal take by a musician who is perhaps the most closely associated of any living proponent with jazz in Sydney.”

Immediately following his talk, Bob joined with musicians from the SCM jazz faculty in a performance that was a celebratory and appropriate paean to the vibrant jazz heritage of this great city.
